New York City

Dear Mrs. Stone:-

You will recall the medal belonging to Mrs. Hill which you left here at the Society and concerning which I wrote Mrs. Hill at your suggestion. We have never received a response from her. Do you think this would mean that she concurred in our suggestion that she present the piece to our Museum? We should like to have the matter cleared up.

Appreciating your interest in our behalf in suggesting that it be given here, I am

Very cordially yours,

Secretary

My dear Mr. Nor.

Your letter has forewarned
me of Scranton.

Mr. Rice was delighted that you would accept his graceful Mrs. usual

and told me she would write to you.

The Matron of the Home
told me that Mrs. Hill
had been seriously ill,
so I think that is the reason you have had no word from her.

Yours very sincerely,
Margaret Stone.

Mrs. Fannie J. Stone.
